Guide Price £65,000

Location

The land is located off the Skipton Road (A59) which lies 2 miles south west of Hampsthwaite and 2.5 miles south of Birstwith. The property is approximately 4 miles west of Harrogate.

Description

The land forms a single parcel of permanent pasture extending in total to 5.41 acres (2.19 hectares) and has recently been used for grazing and mowing. The land fronts directly onto the A59 and is fenced.

The land is classified as Grade 4 and lies within the Dunkeswick soil series being slowly permeable fine loamy and fine loamy over clayey soils. Suitable for grassland and some arable cropping.

Access

The parcel is accessed directly from the A59 which runs adjacent to the northern boundary. A hardcore lay-by sits between the A59 and field entrance which is understood to form a part of the highway.

Services

We are unaware of any services to the land, however there is water in the vicinity. Interested parties should make their own enquiries.
