

23, Beacon Park, First Avenue, Pickering. YO18 8AQ

This traditional semi-detached three bedroom family house has been sympathetically re-furbished to a high specification to provide a comfortable home whilst retaining many internal features.

The immaculately presented accommodation which lies on two floors comprises entrance hall with open staircase to first floor, sitting room with period fireplace and bay window, fitted kitchen opening into dining and sitting area with doors leading onto garden and cloakroom on the ground floor with three bedrooms and luxury bathroom on the first floor.

The gardens lies to the front and rear of the property with driveway parking. Beacon Park lies just West of the town centre where a good range of local amenities and recreational facilities can be accessed.

An internal viewing is highly recommended.
